14. Storage

The Hirer shall ensure that prior to the get-in and after the time of get-out no scenery, props or equipment or personal effects are stored on the premises in the event that such items are left in the Theatre to pay to the Theatre the extra cost that will be entailed.

15. Scenery etc

The Hirer will be entirely responsible for the proper setting of scenery, platforms, rostra, etc and for the proper working at all times of any mechanical or realistic effects

16. Condition of Theatre premises/property

- 16.1 The Hirer shall maintain and keep all the hired areas including the stage and backstage areas in good order and condition.
- 16.2 The Hirer shall ensure that all stage and backstage areas are left in a clean and tidy condition free of litter after each day of hire and at the end of the Hire Period.
- 16.3 The Hirer shall return the stage to a “black box” set-up and ensure all lighting bars are de-rigged, unless advised not to be so by the Theatre staff.
- 16.4 In the event that the stage and backstage are not left as referred to above the Hirer shall pay the costs of the Theatre in arranging for the crew of the Theatre to do so.
- 16.5 The Hirer is to remove all equipment brought in by or on behalf of the Hirer at the end of the Hire Period.

17. Fire Precautions

- 17.1 To ensure all scenery stage decoration props and property etc brought to the Theatre by the Hirer shall be fire proofed and flame retardant in accordance with the requirements of the Licensing Authority and Surrey Fire Brigade
- 17.2 To ensure any electrical items brought into the Theatre by the Hirer must be PAT tested with certification
- 17.3 A person nominated by the Hirer must be responsible for the roll call of all persons backstage during the time of hire. A list of such persons must be available in the event of a fire.
- 17.4 A person nominated by the Hirer and agreed by the Theatre Senior Technician as competent, should be responsible for evacuation and fire procedures of the backstage areas during the time of hire. If a person is not agreed upon a member of staff from the Theatre will be provided and an additional cost will be payable by the Hirer. The training of the said attendant is to be at a level of competency agreed by the Theatre Senior Technician and additional training should be provided when requested at no extra cost.
- 17.5 The use of pyrotechnics, firearms, live flame or smoke must be reported to the relevant authorities and the Theatre Senior Technician will advise who those relevant authorities are and such notification must take place no later than two weeks prior to the performance.
- 17.6 Use of pyrotechnics will not be permitted unless the Hirer can demonstrate full competence and awareness of all safety regulations regarding the use thereof.
- 17.7 The Hirer shall co-operate with fire drills which are arranged at varying times
- 17.8 The Theatre may refuse permission for use of any equipment if in the opinion of the Manager the equipment may endanger the Theatre or its users or vitiate in whole or in part any insurance policies relating thereto.

18. Smoking

Smoking or E-Cigarettes are not to be permitted anywhere in the Theatre or its immediate curtilage.

19. Health and Safety Requirements

The Hirer shall prior to the commencement of hire undertake a suitable and sufficient risk assessment of the risks to the health and safety of his employees and other persons likely to be affected by the work in accordance with all current Health and Safety regulations.

20. The Hirer warrants that:

- 20.1 He shall throughout the period of production have the right to perform publicly the said production
- 20.2 The said production and the method of presentation and performance thereof at the Theatre shall contain nothing which is likely to result in any court of law ordering the withdrawal of the said production or in the restriction of further performances by virtue of the Theatre Act 1968, Licensing Act 2003 or otherwise
- 20.3 The said production, including all music recorded and performed will comply with the copyright laws and will not be defamatory of any person, firm or company
- 20.4 The Hirer is and throughout the period of production will remain, under no engagement with any other management that can preclude him from complying with the terms of this agreement

21. Statutory requirements etc.

The Hirer will ensure that nothing carried on or permitted by him or in about the Theatre or in any part thereof shall be contrary to any statutory provisions, regulations, byelaws or requirements of any local or other competent authority, or which shall cause a breach of any insurance policy, lease or official licence or consent under which the Theatre carry on business at the Theatre, or in any way adversely affect the Theatre or Surrey Heath Borough Council.

22. Rules

- 22.1 The Hirer and all his employees, representatives or agents will observe and abide by any rules issued by the Theatre for the time being in force at the Theatre.

- 22.2 The Theatre reserves the right to refuse any future hires for any breach of the terms and conditions.
- 22.3 The Theatre operates a robust zero tolerance rule to physical and verbal abuse of staff. Any breach of this may result in the hire being cancelled and the production suspended.
- 22.4 The Hirer and their company must follow all instructions given to them by Theatre staff.

23. Script

If so required by the Theatre, the Hirer will deliver to the Theatre at least twenty-one days before the opening performance of the said production at the Theatre a full script of the said production as it will be performed, and subsequently but not later than 48 hours before the first performance a copy of any amendments or additions thereto, and in the event of any prosecution or threatened prosecution under the Theatre Act 1968 or otherwise, consult with the Theatre and make such alterations or cuts in the said production as may be required by the Theatre.

24. Printing/Programme

The Hirer will send a copy of full matter and all printing and plots relating to the advertisement of the said production direct to the Theatre not later than twelve weeks before the opening performance of the said production and will alter or amend the same; he will send copy of programme with details of cast and company not later than six weeks prior to the opening performance.

25. Injury to persons and loss of property

The Hirer will indemnify the Theatre and keep it indemnified to the extent and in respect of any expenses, costs, fees, royalties, damages, liability, proceedings or any other payments whatsoever it may be called upon to pay to any third party as a result of

- (i) Any claim against the Theatre covered by the Hirer's warranties and agreements herein contained;

- (ii) any death, accident, injury, illness or incapacity whatsoever and howsoever caused, suffered by, or contracted by any person (whether employed by the Theatre or the Hirer, or both, or neither of them) while taking part in or attending any performance or rehearsal of the said production, or rendering any service or services to or for the Hirer in connection with the production of the said production at the Theatre, but in any case not attributable to any negligent act on the part of the Theatre.
- (iii) any damage to or loss of any property, whatsoever and howsoever caused, belonging to any person (whether employed by the Theatre or the Hirer or both of them) taking part in or attending any performance or rehearsal of the said production or rendering any service or services to or for the Hirer in connection with the production of the said production at the Theatre, but in any case not attributable to any negligent act on the part of the Theatre.

26. Damage to Theatre property

- 26.1 If the Theatre, furniture, properties, fixtures or fittings therein or any part thereof shall be destroyed, lost, damaged or altered by the Hirer or any employee, agent or anything occurring during the rehearsal or performance of the said production, the cost of reinstating, replacing or repairing the same shall be paid to the Theatre by the Hirer.
- 26.2 The Hirer shall notify the Theatre Manager of any damage immediately.

27. Insurance

The Hirer will effect and maintain adequate insurance satisfactory to the Theatre against:

- 26.1 His liability (both statutory and common law) to the Theatre, its servants, agents and representatives, his own employees and third parties arising under the terms hereof.
- 26.2 Fire, theft, and other risks to all property whether his own or that for which he is responsible that he or his employees may bring into the Theatre, and to produce to the Theatre on demand either the relevant policies or a certificate of the insurance company that such policies are in force.

28. Liability of the Theatre

The Theatre shall not be liable for any loss or damage by fire, theft or other cause whatsoever of or to the property of the Hirer or that of any members of his company.

29. Further exclusions of liability

If the Theatre shall for any reason whatsoever not be in the occupancy and possession of the Theatre at the time or times for the performance of the said production or at the time or times for the agreed rehearsals of the said production, or if the Theatre shall be closed during such time or any part thereof, or in consequence of national or local mourning, war, fire, tempest, epidemics, strikes, lockouts, disputes with employees (whether national, local or confined to the said Theatre), or by order of any licensing, national, local or public authority (whether such order shall or shall not be due to some act or default by the Theatre) or by reason of anything whatsoever outside the control of the Theatre, this Agreement shall be determined for such period as the Theatre may remain closed for any of the reasons aforesaid, and in such event the Hirer shall have no claims against the Theatre in respect of the nonfulfillment of the Agreement or any of the terms thereof.

30. The Theatre reserves the right:

- 30.1 To prohibit all or any part of the said production which it considers may be objectionable to its audience or likely to endanger the Licences of the Theatre.
- 30.2 To exclude any person from the venue as the Theatre in its absolute discretion thinks fit.
- 30.3 To prohibit the issue of any pictorials, bills, leaflets, posters, advertisements or any similar documents.
- 30.4 To use and allow to be used the Theatre or any part thereof for other productions, performances, entertainments or any other purposes at any time, save that this right shall not extend during rehearsals to those parts of the Theatre used for the rehearsal of the said production nor to use during performances of those parts of the Theatre used for performances of the said production, and provided that in the event of the Theatre causing any alteration to be made to the settings of scenery and lighting of the said production the same shall be restored by the Theatre before the next rehearsal or performance of the said production.

31. Animals

31.1 Should the production involve the use of animals the prior written consent of the Owner shall be obtained by the Hirer no later than twelve weeks before the first performance of the production

31.2 No animal is to be allowed to enter the Theatre except guide dogs

32. Partners

32.1 Nothing herein contained shall constitute the Theatre and the Hirer partners, nor impose on them or either of them any of the right or liabilities of partners.

33. Termination

In the event of the Hirer committing or permitting a breach of any of his warranties or agreements herein contained, the Theatre shall have the right forthwith to determine this Agreement, and the Hirer shall have no claim against the Theatre except the box office receipts for actual performances given subject to the deduction therefrom of the hiring fee if not previously paid, and of any monies due or bona fide claimed as due from the Hirer to the Theatre under any of the provisions hereof

34. Prevention of Corruption

The Theatre may terminate this Agreement immediately if the Hirer shall have offered or agreed to give to any person any gift or consideration of any kind or inducement or reward for doing or forbearing to do or for having done or forborne to do any action in relation to the obtaining or execution of this or any other agreement with the Theatre or if the like acts shall have been done by a person employed by the Hirer or acting on its behalf (whether with or without the knowledge of the Hirer) or if in relation to this or any other agreement with the Theatre the Hirer or any person employed by it or acting on its behalf shall have committed an offence under the Prevention of Corruption Acts 1916 or shall have given any fee or reward the receipt of which is an offence under Section 117 (2) of the Local Government Act 1972 or any re-enactment thereof.

35. Broadcasting etc

Neither party will grant any right of or facilities for a broadcast by radio, television or live-stream, nor for any tape, DVD or video-recording whether for commercial or private purposes of the said production or any part thereof prior to or during the period of the said production without the consent in writing of the other party hereto

36. Admission

No free admission shall be given to any person except by arrangement with the Theatre.

37. Arbitration

Any dispute or question between the parties hereto shall be referred to an independent Arbitrator as agreed by the parties pursuant to the provisions of the Arbitration Act 1996 or any statutory modification or re-enactment of it for the time being in force

38. Notices

All notices demands or requests by either party to the other shall be in writing and shall be sufficiently served if delivered by hand or sent by recorded delivery to the addresses of the parties as stated in the Agreement.

39. Agreement Personal to Hirer

The benefit of the Agreement is personal to the Hirer and is not assignable or capable of being sub-hired

40. General

40.1 Nothing in these terms and conditions shall affect the right of the Theatre to apply for any injunction to restrain the Hirer from committing or permitting a breach of any term of this agreement nor the right to determine this agreement, nor any other right or remedy open to it.

40.2 The Theatre shall retain control of the Theatre at all times during the Hire Period and the Hirer must at all times comply with the instructions of the Theatre.

40.3 The Theatre reserves the right of entry to the Theatre Hired areas at all times during the Hire Period.
